

Dear Sirs:

I strenuously urge your commission to leave the Indiana's Telephone PRIVACY Law as is and not weaken it due to the effort of the Consumer Bankers Association. It is my right to restrict calls from anyone I deem and not the right of Bankers or any other business to solícite over the phone. It is an infringement of my privacy.